REFLECTION FOR SUNDAY

Sexagesima Sunday, nestled between Epiphany and Lent, prompts reflection on our spiritual journey. It acts as a checkpoint, urging us to assess the growth of faith within our hearts. Like a changing landscape, it invites introspection on the virtues cultivated and the weeds of doubt. The teachings encountered serve as nourishment, fostering transformation.

In this transitional phase, the impending Lenten season looms—a period of intentional reflection, prayer, and almsgiving. Within this awareness of challenges lies a grace: a recognition of our vulnerabilities and acceptance of our ongoing journey of becoming.

Sexagesima Sunday whispers in the quiet spaces, inviting us to embrace the evolving nature of our spiritual selves. As we stand at the crossroads, may we find solace in the rhythm of the liturgical calendar, trusting each step brings us closer to the fullness of our spiritual potential.

Let’s pray for our parish families every Wednesday at Noon:

My Lord and my God, hear my prayers for the well-being of my parish family. Grant us Your grace and all that is necessary for the spiritual growth and welfare of our congregation. Enlighten and guide my pastor and all who minister to the needs of Your people. Strengthen and awaken in us a living faith; comfort and heal the sick, lonely, and brokenhearted; soften those who are contentious or stubborn; awaken the indifferent, and rescue the fallen. Lord, help us to continue to proclaim Your truth. Unite us with Christ in like-mindedness of purpose. I ask this through Jesus Christ.

Amen.
