Our Goal for Church
Windows Renovation is: $50,000

Dear Parishioners and Friends,
Please consider making a donation towards our church windows renovation. This is our big project aimed at fixing broken windows and enhancing the appearance of our church. The Parish Committee suggests adding an extra $10 per week towards this endeavor. Your contribution will be greatly appreciated. Last time, we received an additional $75, bringing our total to $33,600. Thank you for your continued support.

REFLECTION FOR SUNDAY

Today's Gospel reveals Jesus transcending physical limitations in his resurrected state. Despite locked doors, he appears before his disciples, granting peace and the Holy Spirit. This empowers them to continue his mission, emphasizing the link between forgiveness and the Holy Spirit.

Thomas's doubt echoes our own journey of faith. Like him, we're called to believe without direct sight. His encounter confirms Jesus' resurrection, making him a crucial witness.

Our faith relies on the testimonies of early believers like Thomas. Through Baptism, we receive the same Holy Spirit, joining the ranks of those who believe without seeing.
