Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

All-Powerfull and Eternal God, we look forward to the day when nations will no longer wage war against nations and all people will live in security and peace. No matter what conflicts may face us, strenghten our will to work for peace. As we seek justice and oppose evil, may our purpose be to achieve peace and accord among all nations and people. We ask this through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Prayer for those recently killed in Ukraine

Incline Your ear, O Lord, to the prayer we offer seeking Your mercy for the souls of those innocent lives lost in Ukraine. May they enter the abode of peace and light and share in the fellowship of Your Saints in heaven. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion

(Please say it privately, if you are not receiving Communion today)

Most loving Jesus, I adore You in the Most Blessed Sacrament, in Which You are truly present. I love You above all things and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, I ask You to come spiritually into my heart and heal my soul. I embrace You and unite myself with You; may I never be separated from You. Inflame my heart with the fire of Your love, my Lord and Savior. Amen.

Sunday Reflection

In today's Gospel Jesus answers that people must strive in the time remaining to enter the Kingdom of God through the narrow door because many will be trying to get in but won't be strong enough. He then moves to a parable about another door. Once all those entering the master's house are in and he locks the door, there will be no way for others to get in. Those left outside may knock, but the master will say he doesn't know them. People from the north, south, east, and west will take our place inside. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets will take our place in the Kingdom of God. Those who do not make it through the narrow door will be cast out to where there is wailing and grinding of teeth.
