REFLECTION FOR SUNDAY

In today's Gospel from Mark, we encounter the immediacy of Jesus' ministry, breaking with tradition to call disciples and declaring the presence of God's Kingdom. The narrative challenges us to reflect on the urgency of our response to divine calls, prompting a consideration of whether we prioritize the Kingdom in our daily lives. Like the fishermen who swiftly left their livelihoods, may we embrace the urgency of God's Kingdom, allowing it to transform our hearts and actions in the midst of life's distractions. Let us recognize that in responding promptly to God's call, we become active participants in the unfolding story of the Kingdom.

O merciful God, grant that we may hear Your words with willing hearts and apply ourselves to fulfill them. May we progress toward perfection, and, after completing our earthly pilgrimage, may we be united with You in eternity. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
