Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

All-Powerfull and Eternal God, we look forward to the day when nations will no longer wage war against nations and all people will live in security and peace. No matter what conflicts may face us, strenghten our will to work for peace. As we seek justice and oppose evil, may our purpose be to achieve peace and accord among all nations and people. We ask this through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Prayer for those recently killed in Ukraine

Incline Your ear, O Lord, to the prayer we offer seeking Your mercy for the souls of those innocent lives lost in Ukraine. May they enter the abode of peace and light and share in the fellowship of Your Saints in heaven. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion

(Please say it privately, if you are not receiving Communion today)

Most loving Jesus, I adore You in the Most Blessed Sacrament, in Which You are truly present. I love You above all things and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, I ask You to come spiritually into my heart and heal my soul. I embrace You and unite myself with You; may I never be separated from You. Inflame my heart with the fire of Your love, my Lord and Savior. Amen.

Sunday Reflection

Having reminded the apostles and the crowd that facing the coming judgment takes patience, Jesus now goes on to speak of how difficult it will be to wait. He tells them that he has come to set the earth on fire. Recall that in chapter 3 of Luke's Gospel, John the Baptist tells the crowd that he is baptizing with water, but someone mightier is coming who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. The fire Jesus speaks of here is the distress caused by the coming judgment. It is also the fire of the Spirit that Luke, in the Acts of the Apostles, will describe descending on the disciples on Pentecost. That fire will strengthen them to go out to the whole world to preach the good news of Jesus' Resurrection.
